

Monday 3rd September 2007 “PIS Scores with All Star IAM shares fund” Leng Yeow, The Australian Financial Review.

In the first 20 days of launching the All Star IAM Australian Share Fund, managed by Greg Matthews' Independent Asset Management, PIS took in more than $25 million.

Independent has an enviable track record but was off limits to retail investors until the firm signed a deal with PIS earlier this year.

The manager has consistently outperformed the S&P/ASX 200 Index by more than 7 per cent annualised.

The IAM Australian Shares Fund returned 35.6 per cent and 32.5 per cent for the one and three years, respectively, to July 31, 2007, based on figures from Mercer Investment Consulting.
